“The History Teacher” Close Read Question #1

Which of the following statements would the poet most likely agree with?

A. Children are perfectly capable of understanding complex ideas with the proper instruction and guidance.

B. Blatantly lying to children is the only proper way in which to raise them.

C. Students often do not understand the ramifications of tragic historical events.

D. The purpose of formal education is to aid students in retaining their childhood innocence for as long a possible.

“The History Teacher” Close Read Question #1

Which of the following statements would the poet most likely agree with?

A. Children are perfectly capable of understanding complex ideas with the proper instruction and guidance.

B. Blatantly lying to children is the only proper way in which to raise them.

C. Students often do not understand the ramifications of tragic historical events.

D. The purpose of formal education is to aid students in retaining their childhood innocence for as long a possible.

“The History Teacher” Close Read Question #1

Which of the following statements would the poet most likely agree with?

A. Children are perfectly capable of understanding complex ideas with the proper instruction and guidance. (THE CORRECT ANSWER)

B. Blatantly lying to children is the only proper way in which to raise them. (THE EASILY DISCARDED ANSWER)

C. Students often do not understand the ramifications of tragic historical events. (TRUE BUT NOT NECESSARILY RELEVANT TO TEXT)

D. The purpose of formal education is to aid students in retaining their childhood innocence for as long a possible. (PLAUSIBLE BUT DISPROVEN WITH TEXT)